Research stays at the University of Oldenburg, Germany

Dear Mrs. Nina Wang,

With this letter, you are invited for a research stay in the Department of Economics and Law at the University of Oldenburg, Germany. It is a project named "Discourse series: Robotics use in care" that will be done during your visit. The project requires in-depth onsite discussion to pull out meaningful results. Your research stay may start any time from 01. May 2023 and last for 12 months.

Your academic activities are expected to focus on the question of how the impact of the use of robots in care in relation to work, the acceptance of the technology, and in general the socio-technical relationships between people (caregiver, patient) and robotic technology. You are also expected to concentrate on the findings from case studies and scientific studies in Asian countries.

There are no barriers to English communication in our team and you have already good at English. During your stay here, we will be able to provide you with office space, lab facilities, and internet access. It is my understanding that Huaibei Normal University will bear all the expenses including your round-trip air tickets, boarding & lodging, and transportation and health insurance in Germany.

Please be reminded that, as a non-EU national, you will require a visa in order to visit Germany. You also have to possess medical insurance for the time of your stay in Germany.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Thomas Breisig
